COVENT GARDEN SOCIAL HISTORY ARCHIVE

Dedicated to recording and preserving Covent Garden's life stories.

'It's vitally important to remember what Covent Garden looked like in it's previous life and I welcome any moves to support the social history archive'

Listing your business on the www.coventgardenpictures.com Directory Pages will not only be making sure people are aware of you it will also be helping to build the Covent Garden Archive.

The Archive is dedicated to Film - Audio and Photographic records of personal stories from Covent Garden's recent history

It is planned that the Directory Pages will become the place to look to source Local Businesses in Covent Garden and the surrounding areas.

So this is the beginning and we would like to welcome you to be part of this new project - it's not expensive - just £25.00 per month will give you an Ad on the Directory pages under the category heading of your choice with a link to your website.

Just fill in the standing order form and ask your bank to pay £25.00 on the first day of the next month to our bank and write your contact details and web address and we will do the rest. Your ad will appear on the www.coventgardenpictures.com website Directory pages within 14 days of receipt of the first payment recieved.

We will call you in order to come and take a photograph of your premises.

Thank you for being part of our project and we look forward to a long term business relationship with you in the future.

The purpose of this site is to establish a platform for the Covent Garden Social History Archive - to broadcast true stories on film about the people and places in Covent Garden that make up Covent Garden's Social History over the past hundred years.

The coventgardenpictures.com collection of photographs (found on the 2018 collection page) shot in 1972/3 mark the final days of the fruit/vegetable and flower market which moved to Nine Elms in 1974.

This is only part of the history of Covent Garden however and the plan is to show every aspect of Covent Garden's History Opera/Ballet - Theatre and the many people and trades that supported these activities.

The purpose of the business directory which can be found on the coventgardenpictures.com site is to be the place to look if visiting Covent Garden and also to help pay the costs associated with the archive intended to preserve the history and heritage of the area.

The cost for a directory listing is just £25.00 PCM and is designed to include all businesses wanting to play their part in the local community.

To participate the 'standing order instruction' can be downloaded at the bottom of the Directory page on the coventgardenpictures.com site.
